

Bill's Front Porch Pub and Brewery

Bill's Front Porch, the home of Bill's Brewing Company, is one of Wilmington's hidden gems located in Midtown off of Market St. This totally renovated building provides a very unique experience with recycled wood making up the entire interior creating a warm, cabin-like feel. The brewpub carries a very large selection of handcrafted beers that are brewed on the exposed seven barrel, steam-fired system. There are award-winning beers to satisfy almost any palate such as crisp lagers, refreshing seasonal Belgian ales, and of course, juicy IPA's. The food menu is comprised of options that include beer in the recipes and everything is made fresh from scratch including homemade desserts. Bill's famous fried chicken has become a staple in the Port City and can also be taken home by the bucket with a crowler of your favorite ale. Bill's is a fun, family atmosphere with six flat screens and a projector to watch the big game and a monthly lineup of the best local artists performing on stage.
