Palate Bottle Shop and Reserve in the Brooklyn Arts District has your favorite beverage or they will help you discover something new with 12 cooler doors of beer and wine, 14 taps of eclectic liquid, and a large rotating selection of wines by the glass - and you will never pay a corkage fee for bottles enjoyed inside of the shop.

Palate features an indoor/outdoor patio and beer garden, fire pits, tastings on Wednesday and Thursday, DJ's on Friday, and live music with local and touring musicians on Saturday and Sunday.

Chef Carson Jewell's The Kitchen at Palate focuses on local and seasonal flavors from the farm and sea. The mobile kitchen is open Wednesday through Saturday and during special events.
